- B. AGAI Vol 1 Chap 5 para 5.050

Introduction

1. Ex SMART RUNNER will take place between Wed 24 May and Thu 25 May 17 at Longmoor Training Area and is open to all Regular and Reservists Army units. Wed 24 May 17 will also be World Orienteering Day (WOD) and more detail can be found at <http://worldorienteeringday.com/>
2. Ex SMART RUNNER is classified as individual military training and military personnel competing will be classed as being 'On Duty'. The Exercise Director is the Chairman Army Orienteering Association (see para 9a).

Championships Format

3. The championships will consist of a Classic Cross Country race on Day 1 and a Harris Team race on Day 2. This is an Open competition meaning it will not be broken down into Major and Minor units, but instead it will be conducted in Classes (see Annex A). Prizes will be awarded in each class. The champion Army unit will be the winners of the Long and Female Classes.

Co-ordinating Instructions

4. Travel. Reference A provides the authority to book Service transport using POT Code 13. Travel is authorised to and from the event only. Travel costs fall to individual units and prior approval is to be sought from Unit Budget Holders.
5. Accommodation. Military accommodation has been secured at Longmoor Training Camp (LTC) for those personnel who require it. Bookings should be made on the team entry sheet at Annex B.
6. Feeding. For personnel staying at LTC the first meal available will be Dinner on Tue 23 May 17 and the last meal will be packed lunch meal on Thu 25 May 17. Personnel travelling daily should secure packed meals from their parent units.
7. Allowances. Participants are entitled to normal duty allowances detailed in JSP 752.
