

Ex ASTUTE RUNNER

Army Individual Orienteering Championships

Sun 18 Mar 18

Introduction

Exercise ASTUTE RUNNER is the Army Individual Orienteering Championships sponsored by the Army Orienteering Association (AOA). It will take place within the Leicestershire Orienteering Club (LEI) organised event at Belvoir Castle, Grantham on Sun 18 Mar 18. Competitors should read the AOA competition policy available within Annex E to 2017DIN07-091 dated Sep 17. This competition is classified as individual military training.

Event Information

Further information regarding the event can be found on the LEI website at this link. Please refer to the Sunday event details.

Entries

Pre-Entry is required via the Fabian4 website, with an early discount rate until 14 Feb 18 and a final closing date of 03 Mar 18.

To compete in the Army Championships, you must enter the appropriate Army class (at the bottom of the event page) rather than age class.

Please also book an early or middle start, if specified, to enable swift results collation for prizes.

Once entered, please email Maj Andy Johnson, AOA Secretary, andrew.johnson966@mod.gov.uk to ensure you are included in the competition for prizes and classed as 'on-duty'. This is especially relevant if you enter under a civilian club rather than BAOC.
