Insurance	For civilians participating in Army orienteering, Public Liability Insurance is provided by Towergate; individuals are advised to have their own private accident insurance. This event is conducted iaw British Orienteering Rules 2021 and land booked iaw the AOA DIO Licence and JSP907
Orienteering in the Army is classed as individual military training. Competitors are responsible for their own personal safety and for assessing their own abilities to complete the course.

The personal data you give at Registration will be used by the event organisers and their agents but only for the purpose of processing/publishing entries/results, conducting safety checks and as required by our insurers to validate our cover; and, managed iaw the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
Have fun and enjoy the woods.

Individual Starts. Individuals can start on any loop, but then must follow loops in alphabetical order. Ie if you start on “C” you then do D, A + B in that order. You must press the “start” only once on your first loop and the “finish” at the end of each loop and at the end. Running course out of order will earn you a DNF.

If you don’t understand this simple process please ask before you start.
